RISING RIVER.

About Forty Feet Now Expected Here.

The river is rising rapidly, with about 36 feet on the gauge, and reports today are that yesterday's rain was general. Still the outlook for big water is not considered gloomy by river men, 40 feet is expected, but even this may not come.
The condition of the Mississippi is favorable.

A great deal of idle talk is being indulged in, but the old seamen of monkey wrench corner say there is nothing to fear at present, at least.

from Bob Blanks, the Mayfield

It is said that he is still being pursued, but nothing is known at present of his whereabouts, and all hope has about been abandoned of ever catching him.

COURT HOUSE.

Squire Nick Grief On Trial For Lunacy.

County Supervisors Are in Session To Hear Protests.

Squire Nick Grief was placed on trial before Judge Husbands this afternoon on a writ of lunacy inquir-endo. He is represented by Attorney L. K. Taylor, and as there is a large crowd of witnesses the case will likely last all the afternoon.

The case of W. J. Smith against W. K. Holland was on trial when the lunacy case was taken up.

The board of supervisors today reconvened to hear complaints from property owners whose assessments have been raised. This morning several went before the board and kicked loud and long, but up to this afternoon none of the raises had been changed.

The board will be in session five days.

County Judge Tully has not decided what to do with the wife left at charge against her.

ed a resolution providing for the appointment of a commission to make

A VERY SERIOUS CASE.

Grand Larceny Charged Against Will Hamilton—Arrested
On An Old Warrant.

Judge Harris Decided the Razor Was No Weapon—Other Proceedings of the Police Court.

Will Hamilton, one of the notorious gang that has long infested the Island creek vicinity, was arrested this morning near the mouth of Island creek by Officer Tom Orr, on a warrant charging him with stealing five saw logs from F. A. Bibb, of Gilbertsville, Marshall county, on November 7th last. The logs were brought here and sold, but Hamilton eluded arrest. The charge of grand larceny was docketed against him in the police court this morning, and on account of the absence of witnesses was continued until tomorrow.
Attorney Hopgood was appointed to defend the prisoner, and in default of a $200 bond he was remanded to jail.

Hamilton is a brother to Finn Hamilton, who was fined yesterday for assaulting his mother-in-law, the wife of Andy Brannon.

J. W. Davidson, who is employed on the Corlidge factory, was arrested last night for drunkenness.
On his person was a razor, and he was also warranted for carrying concealed a deadly weapon.

He stated to the court that he brought the razor down to have it sharpened, and Judge Harris decided that he did not carry it as a weapon, and dismissed the warrant. The defendant was fined $1 and costs for drunkenness.

Leslie Taylor, of Ragland, was before the court for drunkenness. It was unnecessary for him to plead, as he was still drunk.

Judge Harris fined him $1 and costs and informed him that he would order the $10 found in his pocket held by Marshal Collins until he, Taylor, got sober, to prevent somebody robbing him. Taylor nodded his thanks. He was too full for utterance.

J. W. Messmore was fined $1 and costs for drunkenness.

ice.

Dr. George W. Meyers, one of the best known dentists of southern Kentucky, died at Bowling Green.

Unless unforeseen complications arise Mrs. Lucille Blackburn Lane, so her physicians say, will recover.

wants to be secretary of the congressional campaign committee at Washington.

Nat Goodwin's wife was granted absolute divorce and $75 per week alimony.

Senator Deloe will hereafter make appointments in the Tenth Kentucky district, the selection of Referee Langley having proved unsatisfactory.

The Adams Express company has discovered that a number of its employes at New York have been engaged in systematic petty stealings.

The United States Supreme Court, in an opinion by Justice Harlan, declines that the heirs of one who commits suicide while of sound mind can not recover an insurance policy.

The will of ex-Mayor Daly, of Newport, bequeaths $1,000 to each of three asylums in Campbell County

Representative Lackey, of Trigg county, will introduce a bill to establish a free medical college in connection with the State A. and M. College at Lexington.

The Kentucky house passed the bill to prohibit the marriage of first cousins, but it is believed the measure will be killed in the Senate.

The condition of Mrs. Lucille Blackburn Lane has improved, and the attending physicians think she will recover.

A bill has been introduced in the Kentucky House by Mr. Cooke, of Warren, requiring all foreign corporations, formed for the gathering of news, to sell their news to any newspaper applying for the service.

THE TWIN ELEMENTS.

Wind and Water Swoop Down at One Time—Damage Done, But Not Serious.

Several Localities in the City Completely Flooded, Especially West. They So in the West End.

A heavy windstorm passed over the city about 12 o'clock last night, and did considerable damage, but none of a serious nature.
It was the climax of an all day and night rain, and made a great many citizens awake in alarm from their peaceful slumbers. The night police report that the cloud was a very ugly one, and passed, for the most part, around the city.

A number of signs were blown down, windows were blown out, and trees were uprooted. At 4:30 o'clock, the city was in darkness, there being hardly an electric light left shining.
Windy nights always cause the lights to go out earlier than on any other nights, the heated ends of the carbon blowing away in sparks, as a great many people have no doubt noticed.

The rain did more damage than the wind. The West End in the immediate vicinity of one of the residents, "looked like Cairo."

Those bridges that were not floated off were submerged so that they could not be used. The flood in the West End is occasioned, according to Mayor Lang, by the sewers, which are inadequate to carry off the volume of water during a heavy rain.
Preparations are now being made to construct a new wooden sewer in many parts of the city.

The water was completely across Broadway at the railroad and on Jefferson street was up in several of the lower houses.

Today most of the water flowed off, and Mayor Lang had a good force at work to prevent, if possible, a repetition of yesterday and last night's difficulties.

"MISS FRANCES OF YALE"

At Morton's Opera House Tomorrow Night.

"Miss Francis of Yale," which has been pronounced by the metropolitan press, and many of our prominent southern critics as being one of the most exorcisingly funny farce comedies presented in years, will be seen for the first time in this city at the opera house on tomorrow evening.

The company presenting the piece is a large and brilliant one and includes some of our foremost stage favorites. The advance sale of seats has been large and more than evidences the great interest which is being manifested.
